COMPLETE ONE-ON-ONE SUPPORT FOR BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

The Indiana Small Business Development Center network and the Indiana Health Industry Forum (IHIF) have partnered to provide comprehensive entrepreneurship services to Indiana's start-up bioscience business community. Whether you need fundamental business assistance or more specialized services with a bio-sciences twist, you'll find a host of resources, programs, and connections that will you start and grow your company.

Every client's needs are different. During your first visit you and your business advisor will speak confidentially about your specific needs and determine what services the South Central ISBDC can provide.

Services include:

- Business Plan Development
- Sales Forecasting
- Market Research
- Industry Research
- Prospect Lists
- Business Structuring
- Strategic Planning
- Business Valuation
- Business Connections
- Finding Business Capital
- Marketing Assistance
- Workshops
- SBIR Assistance

Eligible bioscience companies can further tap into industry-specific resources available through the Indiana Health Industry Forum - a not-for-profit trade association servicing over 150 member companies in the state of Indiana.
